Messrs. S.H. & H. Chapman,

Cgentlemen:-

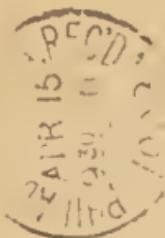

Press of other matters prevented my replying sooner, would say that the coins are so mixed that it is utterly impossible for me to tell where I am. Some have been disposed of in trade, some sold, some are in my private collection, and some are among my stock. The only way that I can see, is to settle for them. The prices were satisfactory, and it would be manifestly unjust to return them after all this time. The trouble is that my time is so limited that I cannot give the proper attention needed to turn them into cash. I have just shipped out several lots, which will net me something soon. I wish to thank you for your kindness in the matter, and if you will let me know the easiest terms you are willing to make, will do my best to conform to them. What can you allow me for Itzebues & 1/4 do. on acct. Also have some Jackson cts. and Store-cards of that period. Possibly they can be used by you. If not needed do not take them. My time at the office is seven days to the week, and frequently evenings, so it keeps me at it all the time, I do not get enough to live on, and am at my lowest financial point. Shall get on my feet eventually.

Yours truly,

Young W.
